

I beleive that the regulations should stay as they are. It is very scary to think that in a town ALL the media could be held by a single ownership. What makes America great is the availablity to hear and express diverse opinions.

thank you for your consideration,
Nancy E. Kosowsky